Web Development Level 3 Questions

1. What CSS property can we use to automatically fit the divisions next to each other?

2. Why is it not good to make two objects with the width value “50%” next to each other?

3. How do we use flexbox in our webpage?

4. To make my element next to each other in a column using flexbox, what code do I need to enter?

5. What does justify-content do?

6. If I want my elements in my row to show in reverse order, what can I do using flexbox?

7. I would like for one of my items to be larger than the others. What can I use to change its size?

8. If I want to change the size of my objects based on what device I use, what can I write in my code to change these values automatically?